Re: North American Freight Car Association v. Union Pacific Railroad Company, STB Docket No. 42119

Dear Ms. Brown:

Earlier today, counsel for North American Freight Car Association ("NAFCA") filed a letter in which he incorrectly claimed that Union Pacific Railroad Company ("UP") had not informed the Board, in connection with UP's petition for an order directing briefs in the above-referenced matter, that NAFCA was unwilling to support UP's request and would be filing a pleading in opposition.

In fact, footnote 1 on the first page of UP's petition states:

"Counsel for UP conferred with counsel for NAFCA, and counsel for NAFCA advised that they intend to oppose UP's request for briefs."

UP reserves its right to reply to any additional misstatements of the record that NAFCA makes in its opposition.

Sincerely,

Michael L. Rosenthal
Counsel for Union Pacific
Railroad Company
